Dog Dies Of Rabies

A nine-months-old crossed terrier owned by Robert Rardon, 618 Prosepect ave., Hermosa, died, of what was believed to be rabies this week.

The dog had not been vaccinated against rabies. Eleven children were known to have played with him.

Edward Alntablian, communicable disease inspector for the Los Angeles County Health Department, Torrance branch, asked individuals to report all dog bites and sick animals to the Health Department, to be on the safe side (FA-83310).
